

SMEG has gone FLUORO! As a tribute to the old school fridge, Smeg re-released the classic as a dishwasher (as well as the iconic fridge) in phenomenal fluoro shades. The BLV1 comes in fantastic shades and will certainly set your kitchen to high heat!

Let SIGNATURE help you put some limited edition art on your walls! Its pieces are easy to order online so all you have to do is decide which artwork you like from the extensive collection, measure your space and away you go!

shades of green

Okay, so we know that being 'green' isn't actually about the colour, but we think that by surrounding yourself in the alluring shade, something is most certainly going to sink in

If you're going to store your laptop somewhere, it better be in one of these! The BUILT NY portfolio/laptop case (available at Until) is made from neoprene, which is squishy soft and will keep it nice and safe CaesarStone has been working closely with architect GREG NATALE on his recent project. This room from the home shows just what it is to be wrapped up in green!

How cute is HUE™? The bite-sized webcam (by Boynq) maintains exceptional video quality and superior sound with its 1.3 MPX sensor, built-in microphone and noise reduction technology. With HUE's™ one-touch snapshot button, digital photography becomes effortless. So give a virtual wave to your pals!

Never lose your spaghetti again! TYPHOON's new range of kitchen tools makes it easy to colour co-ordinate your whole kitchen

Taking inspiration from the iconic PANTONE colour charts, this PANTONE mug by W2 (available at Until) allows you to choose a colour to suit your beverage mood
